CANTORUM CHOIR

Cantorum Choir was founded by Jonathan Miall in 1981, specifically to provide an alternative to choral society traditions. The choir draws its membership from about thirty experienced and talented musicians and has a quality which far exceeds most amateur choirs. Commitments have included many large and small-scale concerts, services at the Cathedrals of Guildford and Winchester and St. George's Chapel Windsor, and Christmas Concerts at the Royal Albert Hall in conjunction with the London based Alexandra Choir.

The choir has been involved in several professional recordings including Christmas Carols with Westminster Cathedral Choir and chorus numbers in an album of the musical Wuthering Heights with Lesley Garrett, Bonnie Langford and Dave Willetts. There have also been TV appearances in Inspector Morse, At Home with Wendy Craig and the BBC 2 series Out and About. Cantorum performed abroad for the first time in 1998 with a highly successful concert tour in Paris. In April of this year they travelled to Belgium for another successful tour, with concerts in Bruges, Antwerp and Ghent. The choir has a varied repertoire and covers a wide range of musical styles including some original works. Three carols have been specially written for the choir and two anthems/part songs dedicated to it. The majority of Cantorum's performances are in aid of charitable causes and to date it has helped to raise over £30,000.

The choir is most fortunate in having three fine conductors in Sally Stafford, tonight's conductor, Jonathan Miall, its founder and president and Murray Hipkin.

SALLY STAFFORD

Sally began her musical career by playing the oboe. She read music at the Royal Holloway College, where she studied conducting as part of her degree course. She has been Head of Music at Burnham Grammar School, teacher and conductor at the Wycombe Music Centre, and County Advisory Music Teacher for Buckinghamshire, during which time she wrote "Sound Activities", a book on teaching music in primary schools. In 1989 she was appointed Director of Music at Dame Alice Owen's School, where she conducted a full symphony orchestra, a training orchestra of 130, a chamber orchestra, jazz bands and choirs. She has conducted orchestras on the South Bank as part of the Festival of Music for Youth.

She has taken a great interest in the training and supervision of music teachers and has lectured on the P.G.C.E., B.Ed. and M.A. courses at Middlesex University. Sally has recently devoted her time to bringing up her young family, and is now beginning to resume her professional career in conducting and music education, through teaching and consultancy work. As many of you know, Sally has been involved in setting up TELEMED, a recently formed registered charity, promoting televisal links for the diagnosis of critically ill babies in between hospitals. You will be pleased to know that links have now been provided for Wycombe, Wexham Park, Milton Keynes, Stoke Mandeville and The Royal Berkshire Hospitals. The Royal Berkshire had its training day yesterday, and the head of Outreach, Great Ormond St. was present with a view to installing the system in GOS. Sally is continually amazed at the ongoing developments of TELEMED and overwhelmed by people's generosity to this cause.

KERI DEXTER (ORGANIST)

Keri Dexter read music at Clare College, Cambridge and Reading University, before completing a PhD at Royal Holloway. As organ scholar, he appeared with the renowned Clare College choir on several broadcasts and recordings, and performed in major festivals in Europe and the USA. He remains much in demand as an accompanist. Keri is also an accomplished baritone: a member of Cantorium since 1995, he has also sung with the choirs of St George's Chapel, Windsor, and St Martin-in-the-Fields.

Sitting here listening to a varied programme of seasonal music really makes us feel that Christmas has begun. The familiar faces of our talented choir and their exuberance suggest that something wonderful and exciting is imminent. Hopefully there will be lively gatherings of friends and families as well as the relaxed quieter times for drowsing in front of the fire, watching the flames reflect on a favourite piece of pewter...

We can still help you to find that "Special present" in time for Christmas.
